

Application - Max Planck School Matter to Life

Letter of Motivation

Your Personal Background

Briefly describe your resume (bullet points are sufficient). Where and what did you study? Do you have any work experience? What steps have you taken in your education so far? (max. 1200 characters)

Please briefly explain any unique feature that may distinguish you from other applicants. Examples could be: extracurricular activities, hobbies, social commitment, outstanding internships, ... (max. 300 characters)

Personal Motivation for Matter to Life

Describe how you assess the scientific significance of the Matter to Life research area.
(max. 500 characters)

Please explain your motivation for the Matter to Life program based on a specific aspect of your educational background. (max. 500 characters)

Knowledge about the program

What aspects of the Matter to Life program do you find most appealing and why?
(max. 600 characters)

Name three Fellows of the Matter to Life Faculty in whose research you are particularly interested. Please give reasons for your statement.
(max. 1000 characters)

Your role in Matter to Life

What is your current scientific specialization? What additional subjects would you like to learn to be successful in Matter to Life? (max. 600 characters)

Please briefly describe a fictional scientific project you would like to work on in your future career. What are your general career goals and how would the program help you achieve them? (max. 1000 characters)